Gyeongbok Palace → N Seoul Tower & Namsan Hanok Village → Tong-in Traditional Market → Trick Eye and Ice Museum → Hello Kitty Café (Lunch included)

Gyeongbokgung Palace, located in the northern part of Seoul. After it burned and was abandoned for almost three centuries, it was reconstructed in 1867. It is the main and largest palace of the Five Grand Palaces of the Joseon Dynasty.

Seoul Tower opened to the public on October 15, 1980 and has since become a major tourist attraction. The 236.7m Seoul Tower sits atop Namsan Mountain (243m), Seoul Tower offers panoramic views of Seoul and the surrounding areas. The view is so stunning that many consider Seoul Tower the best tower in Asia.

Namsan Hanok Village has five restored traditional Korean houses and a pavilion, a pond and a time capsule, which make it a perfect spot to take a walk.

Tongin Market consists of 75 stores, most of which are restaurants and grocery stores. There are also some shops selling manufactured goods like underwear and shoes.

Trick Eye Museum offers various themed galleries where visitors are invited to take part and are more than welcome to explore with their eyes, hands and cameras too.

Hello Kitty Café is a high-class café which reveals an original feature of Hello Kitty with its differentiated and refined taste and customer service strategy.